Said list(s) shall identify each representative's area(s) of responsibility and shall be signed by the WFSE Representative. The University shall not recognize any individual as an official local Union representative or WFSE Representative whose name does not appear on said list nor shall the University recognize any individual as an official local Union representative unless the employee works in a position covered by this Agreement.
- E. Stewards or Chief Stewards shall have the right to participate in representational activities concerning matters related to this Agreement including the resolution of grievances and assisting employees covered by this Agreement during an investigative interview where disciplinary action may occur. In addition to the available pool of paid release time provided for in Section F, immediately below,

Stewards or Chief Stewards may use any combination of annual leave, personal leave day/personal holiday, accumulated compensatory time off, and/or leave without pay when participating in representational activities or any other Union activity during their work duty hours provided:

 2. The Steward or Chief Steward or an employee or grievant that the Steward or Chief Steward desires to meet with is not working on something that requires immediate attention. If permission cannot be immediately granted by the Steward's or Chief Steward's or the employee's or grievant's supervisor, the supervisor will arrange to release the Steward or Chief Steward or the employee or the grievant at the earliest possible time.
 3. Unless mutually agreed to by the University and the Union, not more than one (1) Steward or Chief Steward shall be allowed to process a particular grievance.
- F. In addition to paid release time provided for elsewhere in this Agreement, the Union is provided a pool of seven hundred fifty (750) hours of paid release time per fiscal year to provide for representational duties. University-convened meetings will be considered time worked and will not be deducted from this pool. The University and the official Union representatives may use University equipment to communicate with one another.
- J. The Union may have as many Stewards or Chief Stewards as they wish, however the release time provided in this Agreement may only be used by one (1) Steward, Chief Steward or union designated employee representative at any one time per work unit reporting to a first-line supervisor.
- K. The University shall provide access to the pool of paid release time for up to two (2) employee representatives to attend Union Management or Demand to Bargain meetings, who are scheduled to work during the time the meetings are being conducted, provided the absence of the employee will not interfere with the operating needs of the University. The Union will provide the University with the names of its employee representatives at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the meeting date unless the meeting is scheduled sooner, in which case the Union will notify the University as soon as possible. No overtime will be incurred as a result of participation in or coverage for the individual. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem of employee representatives. Neither Stewards nor employee representatives may use a state vehicle to travel to or from a union management meeting or other bargaining session.
- L. The University agrees that the Stewards or Chief Stewards and the WFSE Representative(s) of the Union shall have reasonable access to the premises. - B. Supplies and Equipment: The Union and its membership will not use University-purchased supplies or equipment to conduct Union business or representational activities. This does not preclude the de minimis use of the telephone, fax and e-mail for union activities pertaining to employees covered under this Agreement if it does not disrupt or distract from University business. The University and the Union may use University equipment to communicate with one another.
- C. Bulletin Boards: The University agrees to provide space for the Union to place bulletin board(s) that will be used for the sole purpose of posting written notices by the Union. The number and location of the bulletin board(s) will be mutually agreed to by the University and the Union. All Union notices will first be signed by a Steward, Chief Steward or WFSE staff person, and will be posted solely within the confines of the bulletin board(s). No notice will be posted that is obscene, defamatory, or that impairs University's operations. Political material may not be posted that reflects the endorsement or non-endorsement of a specific candidate or political party for national, state, or local office, or any ballot proposition(s). The Union will be responsible for all costs related to the purchase, installation, repair, and/or maintenance. The size of the bulletin boards will not exceed three (3) feet by four (4) feet.

- D. New Employee Orientation: Within ninety (90) days of a new employee's start date in a bargaining unit represented by the Union, the University will provide the Union access to the employee during the employee's regular work hours to present information about the Union. This access will be provided at the employee's regular worksite, or at another location mutually agreed to including online platforms by the University and the Union in accordance with University policy and this Agreement and will be for no less than thirty (30) minutes. No employee will be required to attend the presentation given by the Union. Should an employee wish to attend the Union's presentation, they are responsible for requesting time away from the worksite in accordance with departmental procedures.

ARTICLE 6
HOURS OF WORK, WORK SCHEDULES AND OVERTIME

6.1 HOURS OF WORK/WORK SCHEDULES

- A. Time Worked: All time for which an employee is compensated at the regular, straight-time rate of pay except standby time and premium pay. Time worked for the calculation of overtime will include items identified in Article 6.2.B.1.
- B. Work Week: The work week will begin at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday and end at 11:59 p.m. the following Saturday.
- C. Work Period Designations: Employees covered by this Agreement will be assigned to one (1) of the following work period designations. Work weeks and work shifts of different numbers of hours may be established for employees by the University, as long as the work schedules meet federal and state law. Employees may request schedule changes in accordance with Article 6.1.D.5.
1. Regular work schedule: The regular work schedule for full-time employees shall consist of five (5) consecutive and uniformly scheduled eight (8) hour days in a seven (7) day period. Uniformly scheduled means a daily repetition of the same working hours and a weekly repetition of the same working days.
 2. Alternate work schedule: Operational necessity may require positions that are normally designated regular work schedules to work an alternate forty (40) hour work schedule (other than five (5) uniform and consecutive eight (8) hour days in a seven (7) day period). An employee's work schedule will consist of two (2) consecutive days off, absent business or customer service needs determining otherwise. While workplace efficiency and effectiveness govern scheduling, the University will consider an employee raised concern regarding an alternate work schedule that creates consecutive workdays in excess of seven (7) days over a two week work time period.
 3. Nonscheduled work period: The nonscheduled work period designation applies to those positions for which the hours cannot be scheduled but which work a forty (40) hour week and do not meet any of the other work period designations. The Chief Human Resource Officer shall designate positions as nonscheduled in accordance with the University's procedure.

4. Flexible hours: Flexible schedules will consist of five (5) consecutive work days followed by two (2) consecutive days off. At the request of an employee or group of employees, the University may grant flexible work schedules not to exceed eight (8) hours per day. A flexible schedule will have established core hours that are less than eight (8) hours per day when work demands require the presence of the employee. After consultation with the supervisor, the employee's flexible schedule will allow a flexible period to begin and/or end the workday.

D. Schedule Changes

1. A permanent schedule change is defined as a change lasting over fourteen (14) days. Employees will be notified in writing at least seven (7) days in advance of a permanent work schedule change, including the reason for the change and must receive such notice during working hours. The day notice is received is considered the first day of notice. If an employee does not receive the proper notice, the employee shall receive eight (8) hours of overtime pay in addition to the regular rate for each day the notification is delayed.
2. A temporary schedule change is defined as a change lasting fourteen (14) days or less. The employee will receive three (3) days written notice of the change. The day notice is received is considered the first day of notice. If an employee does not receive the proper notice, the employee shall receive eight (8) hours of overtime pay in addition to the regular rate for each day the notification is delayed.
3. In the event of a reorganization within a work unit, hours of work and shifts will be awarded according to seniority. Involuntary schedule changes will use reverse seniority to award the schedule change (starting with the least senior employee).
4. Employees will not work more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period. After working sixteen (16) consecutive hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period, employees will have at least eight (8) hours off.

5. An employee may request a schedule change in writing. Employee schedule change request approvals or denials are subject to University business and customer service needs. Workplace efficiency and effectiveness will govern the approval or denial. The University will consider the personal preferences of the employee. The Employer may disapprove requests if there are business, customer service, performance, or attendance concerns. Previously approved work schedules may be rescinded by the University if business and customer service needs are no longer being met, or if performance or attendance concerns occur. If approved, the notice period will be waived. If denied, the employee will receive such denial in writing.

E. Additional Work

When work is required during the cyclic year or career seasonal layoff periods, the available work will be first offered to the incumbent employee(s) normally performing the work functions in the work unit. If the incumbent employee(s) does not accept the offer, or because students or a temporary employee normally performs the work, the work will be offered by seniority to employees whose normal work assignment is in the same department and classification.

F. Phone Calls: Time spent on work-related employer initiated and subsequent employee initiated telephone calls during the employee's non-work time of over ten (10) minutes per day will be considered time worked and will be deducted from standby pay. The employee shall receive a minimum of one (1) hour compensation at their regular, non-overtime hourly rate of pay for each non-related incident. Employees are not required to answer the phone or respond to work related messages during their non-work time, unless they are on stand-by status.

G. Clean-up Periods: Employees will be allowed an appropriate personal cleanup period prior to lunch and at the end of the work shift, as determined by the supervisor.

H. If the University requires an employee to put on and take off University provided attire and/or gear on the University premises, that time will be considered time worked.

- I. Telework/Commute: Employees will be allowed to telework or telecommute on the same basis as other University employees.
- J. Miscellaneous: Employees will not sign time cards that are incomplete or inaccurate. Employees who believe they have been presented with an incorrect or inaccurate time card shall sign the card if ordered by the supervisor and state their concerns in the comments section of the time card. Any changes to time cards that are initiated by management after the employee has signed it will be reviewed with the employee. If an employee is not present at work for more than two (2) days to review the correction, the responsible supervisor will make and initial the corrections and process them in accordance with normal procedures. A copy will be kept to review with the employee when they return to work.

6.2 OVERTIME

A. General Provisions

- 1. The University will determine whether work will be performed on regular work time or overtime; the job classification(s) and the skills and abilities required to perform the work; the number of employees required; and the duration of the work.
- 2. The University will meet its overtime needs on a voluntary basis with qualified employees, in order of seniority, who are present at the worksite on a straight rotational basis. Work continuation that extends a shift will be offered first to employees on that shift currently performing the work. In the event there are not enough volunteers, the supervisor shall assign employees to work overtime in reverse seniority order.
- 3. Employees who are required to work beyond their regular quitting time:
 - a. Will be allowed to telephonically communicate the need for overtime to affected individuals.
 - b. May qualify for transportation home under the emergency ride home policy.
 - c. Will be notified at least one-half (1/2) hour before the conclusion of their work shift of the overtime opportunity or requirement to work. Employees who are not given the required one-half (1/2) hour notice will receive an additional one-half (1/2) hour of straight time compensation.

- d Will be paid overtime in accordance with Article 6.2.B or will receive compensatory time in accordance with Article 6.3.
4. Probationary and trial service employees will not be offered overtime until the employee(s) achieves permanent status in their classification unless circumstances or operational requirements, as determined by the University, exist.
5. Documented attempts to contact an employee will constitute an offer of overtime. In addition, overtime that is refused and/or worked will be documented on the rotation list.
6. Employees on leave or compensatory time off will be removed from the voluntary overtime rotation list(s) for the duration of the leave/compensatory time off period.
7. The University will not reduce an employee's normal work schedule for the purpose of avoiding the payment of overtime unless there is mutual agreement between the employee and the University.

B. Pay for Overtime Work

1. Overtime will be paid for those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. Time worked shall include Annual Leave, Holiday, Personal Leave Day/Personal Holiday, Civil Leave, and Sick Leave. All other paid leave will not count towards this calculation.
2. Working On A Scheduled Day Off: A full-time overtime eligible employee who is assigned by their supervisor to work on a scheduled day off receives time and one-half overtime compensation for hours worked.
3. Overtime work shall be paid at the applicable hourly rate times 1.5.
4. Employees traveling on University business will be compensated in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.
5. There shall be no pyramiding of overtime or premium pay.
6. When an employee is compensated for working overtime during hours for which premium pay is authorized in accordance with this Agreement, the overtime rate will be calculated using the "regular rate."
7. Employees will be paid overtime in accordance with WAC 296-128-035.

See Appendix F.

6.3 COMPENSATORY TIME

- A. If requested by the employee, compensatory time at one and one-half times the overtime hours worked may be granted in lieu of monetary payment at the sole discretion of the University.
- B. If an employee is granted compensatory time per Article 6.3.A, they may accrue compensatory time up to two hundred and forty (240) hours which may be cashed out at any time during the fiscal year. Accrued compensatory time remaining at the end of each fiscal year will be cashed out by the University within thirty (30) days of the end of the year (June 30) if no agreement on its utilization is reached with the employee.
- C. The University may require employees to use their accumulated compensatory time during non-peak work periods, provided such use does not cause the employee to lose any of their accumulated annual leave and/or personal leave day/personal holiday. Use of compensatory time shall be subject to the following:
 - 1. An employee must have prior approval to use accumulated compensatory time.
 - 2. Compensatory time off shall not be allowed if the use of compensatory time off creates an overtime situation for other employees in the department and/or results in an operational hardship as determined by the University.
 - 3. Absent Appointing Authority approval or as otherwise provided in the Contract, compensatory time off shall be used prior to using any accrued annual leave that may be available, except in those circumstances where such use would cause the loss of accrued annual leave and/or personal leave day/personal holiday.

6.4 MEAL PERIODS AND REST BREAKS

A. Meal Periods

1. Unpaid Meal Periods

- a. Except as provided in Section 2, immediately below, employees working more than five (5) consecutive hours will be entitled to an unpaid meal period of thirty (30) or sixty (60) minutes, as designated by the University. Unless otherwise agreed between the employee and their supervisor, meal periods will be scheduled as close to the middle of the work shift as practicable.

- b. The University will make every effort to provide employees with an uninterrupted meal period. If an employee's unpaid meal period is interrupted by work duties, the employee will be allowed to resume their unpaid meal period following the interruption, if possible, to complete the unpaid meal period. In the event an employee is unable to complete the unpaid meal period due to operational necessity, the remainder of the employee's meal period will be considered time worked.
- c. When an employee is required in writing to keep their pager, cell phone or radio on and will be required to respond or return to work, the employee will be compensated at the standby rate of pay.
- d. Normally, unpaid meal periods may not be taken at the beginning or end of a scheduled shift to permit late arrival or early departure from work except as approved in "e" immediately below.
- e. Meal periods may be waived upon written agreement between the employee and the supervisor.

2. Paid Meal Periods for Straight Shift Schedules: Employees assigned to work a straight shift without interruption for an unpaid meal period will be permitted to eat their meal during their shift as permitted by operational need, but will not be relieved from duty for a meal period.

3. Extension of Shift/Call Back Meal Periods: Employees working three (3) or more continuous hours, either as an extension of their shift or during a period of call-back, will be permitted an unpaid meal period of thirty (30) minutes, or if required by operational necessity to eat intermittently while on duty.

position in any classification in which the employee had held permanent status, in order of seniority.

The employee may be required to provide verification that the situation was such that advance notice was not possible.
2. Annual Leave Bid Process: Employees will submit written bids to their supervisor between the first and last work days in January of each year for annual leave requests. These bids will be for the annual leave calendar of March of the current year through February of the following year. By the end of the second full work week of February, the supervisor will review, resolve scheduling conflicts on the basis of seniority and post a listing of approved requests on work unit bulletin boards. The posted annual leave is considered to be approved. Employees on said listings will have priority regardless of the seniority of subsequent requesters.
3. Requests for Annual Leave Outside a Bid Process: Requests for annual leave outside the bid process may be submitted for leave requests for the current leave year. The process for approving this leave will not be in conflict with the annual leave bid process.
 - a. The supervisor must approve or deny a written request for Annual Leave within ten (10) working days.
 - b. In the event two (2) or more employees request the same annual leave period, and if the supervisor must limit the number of people taking leave, and if the supervisor approves leave, the most senior employee will be given preference. Previously approved leave will not be cancelled in order to grant leave to a senior employee, except for Section c below. The supervisor may deny leave or limit the number of employees who take annual leave at one time due to operational needs and/or staffing levels.
 - c. In the event of a conflict of a previously established annual leave schedule because of a subsequent transfer or promotion, every effort will be made to honor all previously approved annual leave.

In the event of a voluntary transfer or promotion, the employee transferring or promoting will submit a new leave request.

4. Annual Leave Changes: Individual annual leave periods may be changed at any time by mutual agreement between the employee(s) concerned and supervision; however, in no case will an employee's scheduled annual leave interfere with the necessary work of the organization, the determination of which will rest with supervision.
- C. Annual Leave Scheduling for All Employees: Employees must have, or expect to have, sufficient annual leave balances when requesting to use annual leave. An employee is not entitled to use annual leave in advance of its accrual. Approved annual leave requests will be adjusted if the employee has not accrued sufficient annual leave by the time of the scheduled absence.
- D. Annual Leave Cancellation
1. The University will make every effort to find alternatives to meet staffing needs without rescinding previously scheduled leave.

The employee will be given priority for rescheduling the annual leave, but the leave request will not displace previously approved leave of other employees.
- E. Annual Leave Maximum: Employees may accumulate maximum annual leave balances not to exceed two hundred and forty (240) hours. However, there are two methods which allow vacation leave to be accumulated above the maximum:
1. If an employee's request for annual leave is denied by the University, then the maximum of thirty (30) working days' accrual will be extended for each month that the leave is deferred, provided a statement of necessity justifying the denial is approved by Human Resource Services.
 2. As an alternative to Subsection (1) of this Section, employees may also accumulate vacation leave in excess of thirty (30) days as follows:

- a. An employee may accumulate the vacation leave days between the time thirty (30) days is accrued and their anniversary date.
- b. Such accumulated leave will be used by the anniversary date and at a time convenient to the University. If such leave is not used prior to the employee's anniversary date, such leave will be automatically extinguished and considered to have never existed.
- c. Such leave credit acquired and accumulated will never, regardless of circumstances, be deferred by the University by filing a statement of necessity as described in Subsection (1) of this Section.

F. Annual Leave Utilization

1. Annual leave reporting will reflect the amount of time actually used.
2. If the employee is called back to work while on annual leave, the employee's annual leave balance will not be charged for hours worked and the employee will receive call back pay.
3. When holidays occur during annual leave periods, the employee will receive holiday pay and annual leave will not be charged against the employee's annual leave balance in accordance with Article 16.1.B.

G. Annual Leave Cash Out: Except as provided for in Section A.5 of this Article, permanent employees will be paid for all unused annual leave upon retirement, death, or separation from University service at the rate of one hundred percent (100%) of the employee's salary at the time of retirement, death, or separation.

TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

ARTICLE 29 GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

The Union and the University encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to settling disputes as soon as possible and at the lowest possible informal level. Grievants, with their steward if requested by the employee, are encouraged to participate in informal discussion with the appropriate individuals prior to pursuing the formal grievance process. If a solution is not reached in an informal manner, this Article provides an orderly process for resolving disputes. The parties individually and collectively recognize their ability to pursue enforcement of this Agreement through the grievance and arbitration process. A grievant will be defined as the Union, an employee, and/or a group of employees alleging a grievance.

29.1 GRIEVANCE DEFINITION

The grievance must state the alleged violation(s), misapplication(s) or misinterpretation(s); identify the applicable Article(s); document the date, time, and the information upon which the grievance is based; the steps taken to informally resolve the grievance; the requested remedy; and be signed by the grievant or the Union representative. The nature of a grievance presented at Step One shall not be changed thereafter unless mutually agreed to during the course of processing the grievance. Any grievance that does not comply with the terms and conditions of this Article shall not be considered a valid grievance.

The following shall not be grievable:

1. the "Preamble",
2. the "Definitions", and
3. all other areas of this Agreement specifically identified as not being grievable.

29.2 EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCE RIGHTS/UNION REPRESENTATION

A. Any employee or groups of employees covered under this Agreement who believes the employee has been aggrieved may seek relief by filing a grievance. In the presentation of grievances, the grievant(s) shall be safe from restraint, interference, discrimination, or reprisal. Grievances may be filed by the Union on behalf of an employee or a group of employees. If the Union does so, it will identify the employee(s) by name. If filing for similarly affected employees, the Union must identify and notify the University of the similarly affected employees no later than moving the grievance to Step Three.

(1) An employee filing a grievance may request Union representation at each and every step of this procedure. Union representation shall be limited to no more than one designated WFSE Union Steward/Chief Steward and/or the WFSE Representative who shall serve as the exclusive and sole representative of employees covered under this Agreement. The unavailability of a WFSE Representative shall not be cause for delaying the grievance meeting, unless mutually agreed to by the University.

Prior to a University-convened grievance hearing, the grievant will be provided up to thirty (30) minutes, which will be considered time worked, and an additional ten (10) minutes of travel time, if needed, to consult with their official union representative provided said hearing occurs during the grievant's regular scheduled shift.

Prior to a University convened hearing, the official union representative will be provided up to thirty (30) minutes, which will be considered time worked, and an additional ten (10) minutes of travel time, if needed, to consult with a grievant.

29.3 GRIEVANCE TIMEFRAMES

- A. At any time during any step of this process, either Party may request an extension within the timeframes allowed as identified in Employee Grievance Procedures Section below. Such extensions must be requested within the designated timeframes and must be mutually agreed to in writing in order to be granted.
- B. Failure by the Union to follow the steps as defined below or meet the below time restrictions or failure to request and be granted an extension of time limits will be considered as a withdrawal of the grievance.
- C. Should the University fail to meet its time restrictions as defined in Section 29.12 or fail to request and be granted an extension, the Union may elect to proceed to the next grievance step.

- D. For the purposes of this Article, “days” shall mean calendar days, excluding any day observed as a Holiday pursuant to the University’s Holiday schedule.

For purposes of calculating time restrictions, the day immediately following the day a grievance is received or the day immediately following the day a written grievance response is received shall be considered the first day. The moving Party shall be the first to strike a name. The arbitrator shall confine themselves to the precise issue(s) addressed on the grievance form and submitted for arbitration. The arbitrator shall have no authority to determine any other issue(s) not so submitted nor shall the arbitrator have any authority to add to, subtract from, or modify any provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon the grievant, the Union, and the University. The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and provided to the University and the Union. The total cost and expense of the arbitrator shall be borne by the non-prevailing Party. Irrespective of the arbitrator's decision, each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses of preparing and presenting their own case including all legal/attorney fees. Except as directed by an arbitrator, the grievant(s), the grievant's Union representative(s), and their witness(es) shall not be paid by the University for preparation for, travel to or from, or participation in arbitration hearings, but may use leave for such activities. The cost (if any) of the arbitration hearing room shall be shared equally by the parties. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or cancelled by one Party, that Party shall bear any and all costs of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed to postponements or cancellations shall be shared equally by the Parties. Either Party may request the presence of a court reporter at the arbitration whose expenses shall be borne by the Party making the request unless both parties request a transcript, in which case the expenses of the reporter shall be shared equally.

OVERVIEW

Effective January 1, 2018 temporary hourly employees accrue paid sick leave (PSL) for all hours worked, including overtime, in accordance with RCW 49.46.200 and WAC 296-128-620.

For purposes of this policy, temporary hourly employees are non-student, student, and work-study employees. The calendar year is January 1 through December 31.

LEAVE ACCRUAL

Temporary hourly employees begin accruing PSL on the first day of a new appointment. PSL accrues at the rate of one hour for every forty hours worked, including overtime hours. Hours worked do not include PSL hours used. WAC 296-128-620

PSL is calculated each pay cycle. Employees may use accrued PSL on the first day of the month following accrual.

Employees and department personnel administrators may view available PSL balances in Workday. Unused accrued PSL of 40 hours or less must be carried over to the following calendar year. Any unused accrued PSL over 40 hours as of December 31 is lost.

REPORTING LEAVE

Overtime-eligible temporary hourly employees report sick leave used on the Absence Calendar in Workday.

Temporary hourly employees must notify their supervisor as soon as reasonably possible when absent because of illness, injury, or other reason for authorized use of PSL as set forth under Authorized Use of PSL.

For absences exceeding three days, the University may require written medical verification that the employee's use of PSL is for an authorized purpose, provided that the verification does not result in an unreasonable burden or expense on the employee. (RCW49.46.210\(1\)\(b\) and \(c\)) Employees have the right to assert the verification requirement results in an unreasonable burden or expense on the employee. The employee may provide an oral or written explanation. (WAC 296-128-660 \(4\)) Employees must provide any such required verification within a reasonable time period during or after the leave.

AUTHORIZED USE OF PSL

Temporary hourly employees may use their accrued PSL for the following reasons:

- An absence: (RCW 49.46.210)
 - Resulting from an employee's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition;
 - Accommodating the employee's need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or
 - Resulting in an employee's need for preventive medical care.
- To allow the employee to provide care: (RCW 49.46.210)
 - For a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition;
 - Of a family member who needs medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or
 - For a family member who needs preventive medical care.
- When the University has been closed by order of a public official for any health-related reason, or when an employee's child's school or place of care has been closed for such a reason (RCW 49.46.210); and
- For absences that qualify for leave under the domestic violence leave act (RCW 49.76).

SHIFT SWAPPING

A department may not require a temporary hourly employee to:

- Attempt to find a replacement worker to cover the employee's work hours in which the employee is using PSL.
- Work additional hours to make up for the time missed when the employee is on authorized PSL.

If requested by a temporary hourly employee, a department may allow the employee to:

- Work additional hours to make up for the time missed when the employee is on authorized PSL.
- Trade shifts in lieu of using available PSL.

DEFINITION OF FAMILY MEMBER

For the purposes of this policy and in accordance with RCW 49.46.210, the term family member means any of the following:

- A child, including a biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, or a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, is a legal guardian, or is a de facto parent, regardless of age or dependency status.

- A biological, adoptive, de facto, or foster parent, stepparent, or legal guardian of an employee or the employee's spouse or registered domestic partner, or a person who stood in loco parentis when the employee was a minor child.
- A spouse
- A registered domestic partner
- A grandparent
- A grandchild
- A sibling

PROCESS

ADMINISTRATION

PSL is paid at the hourly rate that an employee earns for the shift in which PSL is used.

If an employee has more than one appointment, the cost of PSL is charged to the department budget associated with the appointment in which PSL is used.

Hours worked are counted towards the accrual of PSL for students receiving work-study. Payment of PSL cannot be charged to work-study funds. The PSL is charged to the department budget associated with the work-study appointment.

Temporary hourly employees record the number of hours worked, pieces completed, and PSL hours used each workday in the Workday Time Entry calendar.

SEPARATION AND RE-EMPLOYMENT

Unused accrued PSL is not paid out when a temporary hourly employee separates or their appointment ends.

A temporary hourly employee's unused PSL is reinstated and is available for use the first day of a new appointment if the employee is rehired within 12 months of separation into a temporary hourly position, overtime eligible civil service position, or an overtime eligible AP or Faculty position.

NOTIFICATION TO EMPLOYEE

Employing departments are required to provide the following documentation to each temporary hourly employee no later than the first day of the employee's appointment:

- Conditions for Temporary Employment document,
- Written notice of the conditions of the employee's employment, and
- Written notice of entitlement to PSL.

(WAC 296-128-760 and WAC 357-19-444)

The department should provide the Conditions for Temporary Employment prior to the first day of each appointment and upon any subsequent change to the conditions of the employee's employment. The department must retain the original signed document in the department personnel file. See BPPM 60.26.

RETALIATION

Washington State University may not interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any employee right provided under or in connection with RCW 49.46. (WAC 296-128-770).

NEPOTISM

POLICY

The University does not permit employees to supervise or to participate in employment decisions (including hiring/appointment decisions) affecting family members, household members, intimate partners, or state-registered domestic partners. The purpose of this policy is to minimize the potential for conflict of interest.

The University's objective is to employ qualified persons in all employment positions and to ensure merit-based supervision. This policy is not to be read to justify hiring decisions that violate the University's policy against discrimination (EP15), but rather to ensure that hiring and supervision by family members, household members, intimate partners, and state-registered domestic partners does not occur, except in the very limited circumstances described in this section (60.14).

Definitions Family Member

Family members are defined as the employee's parent, spouse, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister, brother, stepbrother, stepsister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepchild, and stepparent.

Household Member

Household members are defined as persons who reside in the same home who have reciprocal duties to and do provide financial and/or emotional support for one another. This term includes, but is not limited to, foster children and legal wards. The term does not include persons sharing the same general house when the living style is primarily that of a dormitory or commune and the relationship between the prospective or actual superior/subordinate is not an intimate one.

Intimate Partner

An intimate partner is a person with whom an employee is having a current romantic and/or sexual relationship.

Faculty

No faculty member, department chair, dean, or other administrative officer may vote, make recommendations, or in any other way participate in the decision of any matter that may materially affect the appointment, tenure, promotion, salary, or any other status or interest of such person's family member, household member, intimate partner, or state-registered domestic partner.

Administrative Professional, Classified Employees, and Other Non-Faculty Employees

No administrative professional employee, classified employee, or other non-Faculty employee may supervise, vote, make recommendations, or in any other way participate in the decision of any matter that may materially affect the appointment, tenure, promotion, salary, or other status or interest of such employee's family member, household member, intimate partner, or state-registered domestic partner.

Other Employees

The provisions of this section (60.14) also apply to employees holding the following appointments: temporary and hourly, work-study, graduate student, and post-doctoral.

EXCEPTION REQUEST REGARDING SUPERVISION

An appointing authority may request approval for employment of family members, household members, intimate partners or state-registered domestic partners in superior/subordinate relationships. This approval permits an employee to be in the direct supervisory chain above or below a family member, household member, intimate partner, or state-registered domestic partner. See 60.10 for information regarding appointing authority.

This approval does not permit a superior to participate in decisions affecting a family member, household member, intimate partner, or state-registered domestic partner prior to offering and filling the position.

See also EP28 regarding superior/subordinate relationships.

Procedure

The appointing authority prepares a request memorandum including the following:

- The type of appointment, salary, title, working relationship, and a summary of the search process used to select the candidate.
- A description of the administrative process for supervision of the subordinate.
- The name, title and contact information of a designated third party within the department who will be involved with employment impacting decisions, e.g., decisions regarding annual review, salary, and performance.

The request memorandum is to be signed by the appointing authority and the third party designated for involvement in employment decisions.

WSU Approval At Pullman And Locations Other Than Regional Campuses

Regional Campus Approval Faculty

For exceptions involving faculty at the regional campuses the appointing authority submits the memorandum to the responsible chancellor. The chancellor reviews the arrangement and if the employee approves, forwards the memorandum to the Provost and Executive Vice President for final approval. The appointing authority sends a copy of the memorandum to Pullman HRS.

If approved by the chancellor and the Provost and Executive Vice President, the memorandum and signed approvals are routed to HRS. If not approved, the chancellor or Provost and Executive Vice President provides written notification to the appointing authority and routes a copy to Pullman HRS.

Any employee may report concerns regarding possible violations of this policy to HRS or the Office of Internal Audit.

TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

APPENDIX E
PAYMENT INTERVAL

WAC 296-128-035

Payment interval.

(1) This rule shall apply to employers and employees subject to chapter 49.46 RCW.

Note: Employers and employees not subject to this regulation may still be subject to the payment interval requirements of WAC 296-126-023 or 296-131-010.

(2) Definitions:

- (a) "Monthly interval" means a one-month time period between established pay days.
- (b) "Pay day" means a specific day or date established by the employer on which wages are paid for hours worked during a pay period.
- (c) "Payment interval" means the amount of time between established pay days. A payment interval may be daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly or monthly.
- (d) "Pay period" means a defined time frame for which an employee will receive a paycheck. A pay period may be daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly or monthly.

(3) An employer shall pay all wages owed to an employee on an established regular pay day at no longer than monthly payment intervals. If federal law provides specific payment interval requirements that are more favorable to an employee than the payment interval requirements provided under this rule, federal law shall apply.

(4) If an employer pays wages on the basis of a pay period that is less than a month, the employer shall establish a regular pay day no later than ten (10) days after the end of the pay period, unless expressly provided otherwise by law.

Example 1: Employer establishes a weekly pay period. The workweek is from Sunday January 1 through Saturday January 7. Unless a different payment interval applies by law, the employer must pay wages no later than January 17.

Example 2: Employer establishes two semi-monthly pay periods (the first pay period covers the 1st day of the month to the 15th day of the month; the second pay period covers the 16th day of the month to the last day of the month). Unless a different payment interval applies by law, the employer must pay wages no later than the 25th day of the current month for the first pay period, and no later than the 10th day of the following month for the second pay period.

(5) If an employer pays wages on the basis of a monthly pay period, the employer may establish a regular payroll system under which wages for work performed by an employee during the last seven days of the monthly pay period may be withheld and included with the wages paid on the pay day for the next pay period.

Example: Employer establishes a monthly pay period starting on the 1st day of each month with an established pay day on the last day of the month. In a thirty-one-day month, unless a different payment interval applies by law, the employer must pay wages for work performed between the 1st and 24th days of the month on the established pay day (the last day of the month). The employer may pay wages for work performed between the 25th and 31st days of the current month on the following month's pay day (which means that the employer would pay wages for work performed between the 25th and 31st days of the current month, and the 1st and 24th days of the following month, on the following month's pay day).

If pay period is:	And if pay day for regular wages is:	Then pay day for overtime wages must be no later than:
1st of the month - 15th day of the month	25th of the month	10th of the following month
16th of the month - 30th or 31st of the month	10th of the following month	25th of the following month

- (6) An employer shall pay overtime wages owed to an employee on the regular pay day for the pay period in which the overtime wages were earned. If the correct amount of overtime wages cannot be determined until after such regular pay day, the employer may establish a separate pay day for overtime wages; provided, that the payment of overtime wages may not be delayed for a period longer than that which is reasonably necessary for the employer to compute and arrange for payment of the amount due, and overtime wages must be paid by the regular pay day following the next pay period.

Example: Employer establishes two semi-monthly pay periods. The first pay period covers work performed from the 1st day of the month to the 15th day of the month with the pay day of the 25th; the second pay period covers the 16th day of the month to the last day of the month with the pay day of the 10th of the following month. An employee works overtime in each of the pay periods. Unless a different payment interval applies by law, the employer must pay the overtime wages no later than the 10th day of the following month for the overtime earned during the first pay period, and no later than the 25th day of the following month for the overtime earned during the second pay period.

If pay period is:	And if pay day for regular wages is:	Then pay day for overtime wages must be no later than:
1st of the month - 15th day of the month	25th of the month	10th of the following month
16th of the month - 30th or 31st of the month	10th of the following month	25th of the following month

- (7) Mailed paychecks shall be postmarked no later than the established pay day. If the established pay day falls on a weekend day or holiday when the business office is not open, mailed paychecks shall be postmarked no later than the next business day. Employers that pay employees by direct deposit or other electronic means shall ensure that such wage payments are made and available to employees on the established pay day.
- (8) These rules may be superseded by a collective bargaining agreement negotiated under the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq., the Public Employees' Bargaining Act, RCW 41.56.010 et seq., or the Personnel System Reform Act, RCW 41.80.001 et seq., if the terms of, or recognized custom and practice under, the collective bargaining agreement prescribe specific payment interval requirements for employees covered by the collective bargaining agreement; provided, that:
- (a) All regular wages (whether paid on an hourly, salary, commission, piece rate, or other basis) shall be paid to employees covered by the collective bargaining agreement ("covered employees") at no longer than monthly intervals;
 - (b) All other wages (including overtime, bonus pay, and other categories of specialty pay in addition to regular wages) are paid in accordance with the payment interval requirements applicable to covered employees under the terms of, or recognized custom and practice under, the collective bargaining agreement; and
 - (c) The employer pays regular wages to covered employees at no less than the applicable minimum wage rate.
